ST GEORGE MINING – INVITATION TO RIU RESOURCES CONFERENCE IN SYDNEY

St George Mining Limited (ASX: SGQ) ('St George Mining' or 'the Company') will be presenting at the RIU Resources Conference in Sydney on 11 May 2016.

We are pleased to invite shareholders to attend the RIU Conference and to hear first-hand from senior management regarding the Company's exploration activities, including the ongoing drill programme at the Mt Alexander Project and the upcoming drill programme of high priority gold targets at the East Laverton Project.

A section of the diamond drill core from the recent discovery of high grade nickel-copper sulphide mineralisation at the Mt Alexander Project will be available for inspection at the St George exhibition booth.

We have limited free passes to the Conference on 11 May 2016. The pass includes entry to the exhibition booth area, morning and afternoon teas, lunch and presentations throughout the day.

To request a pass, please send an email to the Company at info@stgm.com.au.

Yours sincerely

John Prineas
Executive Chairman
